Keep 'em coming.

Thanks to those who are feeding the results to me from whatever source comes to hand. I've changed my home email and can be contacted on wilf.orton@btinternet.com. I still have my yahoo address, quoted in the May courier but the new one is more readily accessible so keep the results coming. Readers' views and other material is always welcome.

The next mob match.

Congratulations and commiserations to all who turned up for the Orion match earlier this month. We certainly did ourselves proud by the turnout and perhaps next time our fortunes will change. Bill Wheeler has asked me to remind you all that our next Mob match is against Ranelagh Harriers on the the 21st of January. Perhaps this time the numbers and the skill and superior athleticism will win the match for us, so keep that date in your diaries.

On a seasonal note.

By now the Christmas spirit is casting its spell over the life of the club with a full program of events coming up. As we go into print the Christmas yacht handicap has just taken place, won by Steve Gascoigne with Adam Atkinson and Mike Salmon taking the other major places. The two big Christmas suppers are now sold out and promise to be fun events in their own different ways. The editor takes this opportunity to wish all readers the best wishes for a happy Christmas and an athletic new year.
