Other News

I received a lovely email from Alan Stevens, one of our New Zealand members!

Each week I download President's News to scroll thru what is happening in the Club – almost too much to take in! But the amazing successes over so many fixtures, events and age groups is astounding and a tribute especially to the coaches and club officials/organisation. It makes me very proud.

The recent London XC Champs at Parliament Hill brought back memories of races there – and the mud! Interesting the decision to pause some of the traditional club events due to the congestion of so many other fixtures. We too have the same issues here in NZ, not only with the numerous new events in the Wellington region that have affected our own Scottish traditional club races. However last Saturday at the Newtown track in Wellington Scottish hosted the annual Wellington 10,000m champs with over 50 in each of the 2 main A & B races plus many more in the mass interclub relay.

I was interested to read of your success in the 6 Abbotts World Marathon Masters, well done! Our Son Todd was NZ Marathon Champ on the famous Rotorua Lake circuit and went on to privately do London (twice), Berlin, Boston, Chicago and New York (thrice) when Abbotts was only five. He also did Paris. Is considering doing Tokyo and maybe Sydney to top up the tally.

I see that the Club dinner is coming up this coming Friday. My greetings to the gathering – especially Tim Hutchings who I met several times at the World XC Champs, I was fortunate to attend 25WXC events in various roles. The two club dinners I attended, 1960 & 61 were both in the House of Commons Members Dining room – the latter one hosted by Chris Chataway.

Fixtures

- UK Cross country trials at Liverpool
- Kent Masters at Dartford on Saturday
- Boxing Day Paperchase Dec 26th!

Bonus Ball winners – Maz Turner!
